

Our Gem Symposium

March 22, 2016

8:00 – 4:00

7:30 – 8:15 Registration and Continental Breakfast

- 8:15 Welcome
- Rose Creek Drummers, Honor Song
 - Chairman Chief Allan, Coeur d'Alene Tribe
 - Commissioner Marc Eberlein, Kootenai County Board of Commissioners

Morning Session – MC Steve Wilson, Coeur d'Alene Chamber of Commerce

8:45 Jim Kimball -Taking the long view on the Basin

9:45 break

10:00 Science Panel: Facilitator, Phillip Cernera, Director, Coeur d'Alene Tribe Lake Management
Dr. Dale Chess, Coeur d'Alene Tribe Lake Management Plan, and Dr. Craig Cooper, IDEQ
Drivers of long-term dissolved oxygen trends and metals impacts
Dr. Mark Solomon, University of Idaho MILES Project (Managing Idaho's Landscapes for Ecosystem Values)
The Relationship of Water Quality and Property Values

12:00 Lunch-

Local Gem Awards, Coeur d'Alene Chamber of Commerce Natural resources Committee
CDA 2030 presentation

Afternoon Session MC Dr. Charles Buck, University of Idaho –Coeur d'Alene
LMP Success Stories: Partnering to Protect Our Gem

1:00 Educational panel: Rusti Kreider, Post Falls High School; Marie Pengilly, UI CWRC; Adrienne Cronebaugh, Kootenai Environmental Alliance.

2:00 Nutrient reduction projects around the Basin. Aubrey Hoxie, USDA-NRCS; Meghan Lunney, Avista Corporation.

2:45 Break

3:00 Implementation showcase: The Ehtumish Project –Opportunities and Challenges for Native Fish Restoration. Angelo Vitale, Coeur d'Alene Tribe

4:00 Wrap-up and Adjourn

University of Idaho
Coeur d'Alene

