Vote for Redband Park and Redband Field!

The community makeover of the Glover Field and Peaceful Valley continues. This winter, the Peaceful Valley Neighborhood Council unanimously endorsed and formally requested the City Parks Department to rename Glover Field and the surrounding areas to Redband Park.

This name change is also fully supported by the Spokane River Forum, the Spokane Tribe of Indians, the Spokane Indians Baseball Team, WDFW, the Spokane River Keeper, Trout Unlimited, the Spokane Tribal Fisheries Department and the Inland NW Community Foundation.

Said Otto Klein, Senior Vice President of Spokane Indians Baseball team, "The community has rallied to protect and restore the river's signature fish, the native Redband Trout through the Redband Rally Campaign. The proposed name change marks our long term commitment to raise money for Redband habitat and celebrate Spokane River restoration and river access projects."

Your vote counts! Click here for a one question survey on the proposed name change through June 6th.

The Parks Department will share results with the Park Board, which is expected to vote on the proposal June 14th.

H2O Breakfast Thank You

Awesome showing of 200+ people at our H2O breakfast! We thought globally and talked locally about our water future.
