

Closer and Closer to Our Cleanup Goal

A big thank you to Saturday's crew at Mission Park! And thanks to our river cleanup partner, Spokane Riverkeeper!

A crew of 35 cleaned up an estimated 1,000 pounds, bringing us closer to our 2021 goal of collecting 25,000 pounds.

You can volunteer by signing up: spokanerivercleanup.org.

Check out photos in the Facebook album.

Spokane River Headlines

Find upcoming events, stories, news, alerts, resources and more.

SRF Website »

Explore the Spokane River Water Trail

Find boat launches, campgrounds, activities and amenities.

Water Trail »

Waste & Recycle Directory

Got waste? Put it in the right place.

Search »

Spokane River Water Trail Grows in Popularity

Whether it's paddling, rafting or angling that floats your boat, visit spokanewatertrail.org for the latest information on where you can put in and take out, river flows, safety and helpful resources. From beginner to expert, there's something for everyone.

Follow Us

Join Our Mailing List »

Cleaning Up the River is a Long Tradition

This 1994 photo shows Spokane Mayor Jack Geraghty giving the Northwest Whitewater Association (NWA) a proclamation for leading river cleanup efforts.

These folks sure would be proud that the power of stewardship has continued to grow as more and more people discover the Spokane River. We got a cool thing going with volunteers, user groups and conservation organizations making river cleanup an on-going effort. Join the fun. Spokanerivercleanup.org

The Spokane River Forum is a non-partisan, non-profit organization that creates materials, events and activities that promote sustaining a healthy river system while meeting the needs of a growing population.